SCHOOL INFORMATION

Message from Mrs Watts

This will be the last newsletter for this term as we have an INSET day next Friday. The term seems to have flown by, and it is hard to believe that we will be in the final term when we return on 28th April!

Today marks Miss Jane's last official day in work, but she will be back on Monday for a handover with Miss Carly, and then will also be back in June for a special assembly, following her long travels across Ireland. We wish you all the best!

"Goodbye Miss Jane!"

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs Watts

Congratulations Dosbarth Cennen!

Congratulations to children in Dosbarth Cennen who have taken part in a Young Writers 2025 competition and their entries have been chosen to be published in a book! We are very proud of you! Well done to Alysha-Mai, Luxley, Mya, Alesha, Lilia, Evie, Hunter, Kimran, Molly & Alyssia!

Rights and Values

Our Value of the Month is Inclusion.

Our Right of the Month is:

'All children have the right to follow their own religion'

Shelters at the front main entrance

The shelters at the main entrance to the front of the school keep being broken, and the cost to replace the panels is extremely high. Whilst we appreciate that children like to play in the area to the front of the school when waiting for siblings or at the beginning or end of the school, we would request that children are supervised at all times and are reminded not to play in the shelters, particularly running or knocking into them, scooting/biking around them or kicking balls at the panels. Hopefully this will limit any unnecessary damage and will mean we can spend the money on classroom resources or trips rather than repairs to the shelters.

Thank you for your support with this.

Admin after Easter

As you will be aware, Miss Carly will be taking over the admin role after Easter. However, there will be one afternoon each week when Miss Carly will not be covering the office as she will be completing her university studies. Therefore, contact with the school will need to be made via email to myself or by the mobile number which is 07770 567413. The day may change from week to week, but this will be communicated to you each week on the newsletter and Classlist. Many thanks.
